Professional Summary

I'm a self-driven full-stack developer with experience shipping production apps using React, Next.js, and PostgreSQL. I enjoy designing scalable APIs, refining frontend architecture, and validating quality through E2E testing. I explore AI tools for pair programming and faster research, and I have interned at a tech startup developing Airlyft, a Web3 community platform used by leading projects like Polkadot and Mythos.

Skills

- Frontend: React, Next.js, Tailwind, TypeScript, JavaScript
